PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We will strive to imitate the Holy Family: by being a loving, welcoming, and forgiving community – fully alive in the Spirit of God; by teaching our children the Gospel way of life and encouraging them always to share fully in the life of our parish; by celebrating the Liturgy as a joyful remembrance of our Lord's Sacrifice for us; by being a family of prayer; by respecting all life, and by having our arms open always to embrace the sick and needy.

Parish Faith & Family News

A letter went out to all our graduates this past week. If you didn't get one please call the office. The Baccalaureate Mass is Sunday, May 20th, at the 10:00 a.m. Mass. Dress code for this Mass is dress clothes under your gown. No jeans, shorts, t-shirts, or tennis shoes please. I need a graduation picture for the board.

“Every day of your life, seek ways to bring value to others. When you create value for others, you will receive value in return.” This is taken from A Graduate's Guide to Life by Frank Hanna. Good sound advice for everyone.

Our formal CCD classes are finished for the summer, but we should never stop our learning about the faith. With the internet at our finger tips we can google many things. What would it be like if God took the summer off? What would our lives be like? Have a fun, happy, and safe summer!

HOSPITALITY LECTURE

Registration for the 33rd annual Hospitality Lecture is now open. It will be held on Wednesday, May 30, 2018 at the Ramada Inn, Marquette. Our presenter this year is Dr. Richard McCorry, founder of the Center for Parish Hospitality and he will be speaking on a spiritual process for becoming a more welcoming parish. You can register by going to <https://form.jotform.com/ggostomski2003/HospitalityLecture>. Direct any questions to Denise Foye, dfoye@dioceseofmarquette.org. or 906-227-9130

Good Shepherd Collection

On Good Shepherd Sunday, our parish and all parishes and missions throughout our diocese took up a special collection to support our priests' retirement fund, called the St. Joseph Association. Collectively, our parishioners have raised $1,050.00 to date. We truly appreciate your support. If you were unable to use your envelope last weekend, you may still do so.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Members of Holy Family Parish Prayer Shawl Ministry have displayed several of their prayer shawls in the gathering space. This group of parishioners knits or crochets shawls for anyone in need of prayer. Whether the recipient is sick or grieving or even celebrating a happy occasion such as a birth or wedding, the shawl is meant to bring comfort to them. Many prayers are stitched into each shawl. On the second Thursday of each month, the group meets at 8 a.m. Mass and presents shawls during the offertory. Father prays a blessing for those who will receive a shawl. After Mass the group meets to socialize, work on shawls and prepare them for delivery to people in need of prayer. New members are always welcome. Please join us May 10th after 8 a.m. Mass in Fr. Matt Hall.

SPIRIT LIFTERS

- May 6th - Our Lord has written the promise of the resurrection, not only in the Bible, but in every leaf of springtime.
- May 7th - Keeping house is like threading beads on a string with no knot at the end.
- May 8th - A mother is the only person on earth who can divide her love among ten children and each child still have all her love.
- May 9th - There is nothing human so dependable, so irresistible, so unselfish as true mother love.
- May 10th - The mother's heart is the child's schoolroom.
- May 11th - You may have tangible wealth untold; Caskets of jewels and coffers of gold; Richer than I you can never be - I had a mother who read to me.
- May 12th - Who we are, who we become, is determined by those who love us.
- May 13th - You are young only once, but you can stay immature for life.
