We will strive to imitate the Holy Family: by being a loving, welcoming, and forgiving community – fully alive in the Spirit of God; by teaching our children the Gospel way of life and encouraging them always to share fully in the life of our parish; by celebrating the Liturgy as a joyful remembrance of our Lord’s Sacrifice for us; by being a family of prayer; by respecting all life, and by having our arms open always to embrace the sick and needy.

Parish Faith & Family News

We do have all our CCD teachers now. Emily Moreau is our new fourth grade teacher. Thank you to all our teachers.

The Steubenville North Youth conference will be held in St. Paul, Minnesota, July 26-28, 2019. The cost is $270 per person. The theme of this conference is BELONG (1 John 3:1). This weekend is filled with great music, energetic speakers, dynamic skits, sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist, and plenty of time for personal growth and group interaction. There is a non-refundable deposit due no later than December 10th. Please turn this in to the office.

This weekend is special throughout the United States. As we celebrate Priesthood Sunday, let us join everyone across the United States, in praying for our priests, and praising God for their courage and generosity in answering the call to the priesthood. The ministries of the Church are many and varied, but God shows His goodness by sending priests to care for the people of God. They are called to lead us in love; nourish us with God’s word and strengthen us through the sacraments. Today we ask God to bless you, Father Francis. May the Holy Spirit uphold you always in your service to the people of this parish. There is no CCD this week for grades 1 through 8. It is Halloween. The next class will be November 7, 2018. The next confirmation class will be November 4, 2018, after the 10:00 a.m. Mass. Have a spooktacular week!

St. Vincent de Paul Corner News

In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus asks Bartimaeus: “What do you want me to do for you?” And he answers, “Master, I want to see.” Let us ask Jesus for the grace to “see” our brothers and sisters who are poor and lonely.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring God’s love and mercy to families by providing food, and other bills. God Bless You!

Thou that hast given so much to me,
Give one thing more, —a grateful heart.
—George Herbert

Thanks to all of those who worked together so well, for such long hours, on the day of the parish harvest dinner and before. Thanks to the army of volunteers who have been working for weeks, selling raffle tickets, preparing items for the bucket raffles, buying and donating grocery items, setting up shelves, tables chairs, cleaning before and after the event, carrying out garbage, serving the meal, serving beverages and keeping the tables clean, watching the various booths. Everyone working together saw the event through to completion. According to the preliminary accounting, the parish has cleared about $6,600. If it were not the chief of the capital sins I would be proud of your efforts. As it is, I am well pleased with your generosity, hard work and cooperation. In honor of the Blessed Trinity, thank you, thank you, and thank you.

VACATION

I will be taking some days of vacation over the course of the next three weeks. I will be leaving after a morning Mass next Tuesday, 30 October and returning late on Friday, 16 November. Father Peter Fosu will be here for Masses on All Saints Day, 1 November, (a Holy Day of Obligation), All Souls Day for an evening Mass at 7:00 p.m., and the weekends of 3-4 November and 10-11 November. I am sure that you will make him most welcome.

Father Brian Gerber (906-863-3405) will cover funerals and if needed Father Rick Courier (906-786-4627). Also, Father Courier will be available for any emergency sacramental needs that Father Emmett Norden, the hospital chaplain, is unable to attend to. The parish secretary will help you contact any priest that you might need.
