PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We will strive to imitate the Holy Family: by being a loving, welcoming, and forgiving community – fully alive in the Spirit of God; by teaching our children the Gospel way of life and encouraging them always to share fully in the life of our parish; by celebrating the Liturgy as a joyful remembrance of our Lord’s Sacrifice for us; by being a family of prayer; by respecting all life, and by having our arms open always to embrace the sick and needy.

The Pastor’s Mind’s Eye

Corporal Works of Mercy: Feed The Hungry

Part 3

This work of mercy can also be carried out in other circumstances. People who are experiencing stress or grief may not have the energy to cook. Bringing meals to a neighbor at a difficult time, such as after a stay in the hospital or at the death of a loved one, is a small but effective act of charity. The elderly shut-in or resident in a home would appreciate an occasional special treat or luncheon out. A good meal – especially when accompanied by a warm heart and a generous ear – nourishes the spirit as well as the body.

In the context of this work we might also re-visit the practices of fasting and abstinence, which seem to have all but disappeared from Catholic life. By foregoing a meal we can curb our own appetite (a healthy thing for us!) and use the resources to help someone who needs a meal.

As we reflect on the works of mercy during this Holy Year, we see that they open our eyes to the needs – great and small – of other people. Our vision should embrace the whole human family, but our response can be made even in little, discrete ways. The Lord promises: “If you pour yourself out for the hungry... then shall your light rise in the darkness” (Is 58:10).

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

The Solemnity of the Assumption this year is not a Holy Day of Obligation because it falls on Monday. But we will have an 8:00 AM Mass to celebrate it.

SPIRIT LIFTERS

Aug. 14th - We flatter those we scarcely know, And please our fleeting guest, But render many a heartless blow, To those we love the best.

Aug. 15th - The light of God is more desirable than the greatest treasures owned in darkness.

Aug. 16th - The size of your troubles generally depends on whether they are coming or going.

Aug. 17th - A SMILE - It creates happiness in the home, fosters goodwill in business, and is the countersign of friends.

Aug. 18th - One of the beautiful surprises of middle age is the discovery that mature love is not only richer and deeper, but every bit as breathtaking as it was in the beginning.

Aug. 19th - Casting our burden on the Lord frees us to help carry another's burdens.

Aug. 20th - Sitting and wishing won't change your fate; God provides the fishing, but you've got to dig the bait.
