PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We will strive to imitate the Holy Family: by being a loving, welcoming, and forgiving community – fully alive in the Spirit of God; by teaching our children the Gospel way of life and encouraging them always to share fully in the life of our parish; by celebrating the Liturgy as a joyful remembrance of our Lord’s Sacrifice for us; by being a family of prayer; by respecting all life, and by having our arms open always to embrace the sick and needy.

The Pastor’s Mind’s Eye

Give drink to the Thirsting - Part 3

When speaking of receiving his followers, Our Lord says: “Whoever gives to these little ones even a cup of cold water because they are disciples, truly, I say to you, shall not lose their reward” (Mt 10:42). Two comments might be in order here. First, Christ’s attention to detail – specifying cold water – holds a lesson for us: our sharing should be considerate. Jesus offers a model of “courtesy” that celebrates the dignity and standing of the other person. Time and again we see him exercising this thoughtfulness when healing the sick.

Second, his instruction underscores how important even little acts of charity are; none of them, however slight, is missed by our loving God. Pope Francis dealt with major environmental and social challenges facing the human family in his encyclical, but he also underscored how important seemingly small acts can be: “Saint Therese of Lisieux invites us to practice the little way of love, not to miss out on a kind word, a smile or any small gesture which sows peace and friendship. An integral ecology is also made up of simple daily gestures which break with the logic of violence, exploitation and selfishness” (Laudato Si 230).

A woman carried her pitcher to the well and there met a man who asked her, “Give me a drink” (Jn 4:7). That simple request began a conversation that changed her life forever. Such is the power of one cup of cold water!

SPIRIT LIFTERS

Sept. 4th - I saw tomorrow look at me from the little children's eyes, and I thought how carefully we'd teach, if we were really wise.

Sept. 5th - Guard against the loss of spiritual power that comes through hasty words and judgments.

Sept. 6th - Never let a difficulty stop you; it may be only sand on your track to prevent your skidding.

Sept. 7th - Oh, never say that there is nothing you can give, Through all the years you live, You can bestow the fair and healing gift of prayer.

Sept. 8th -whatever you do in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus....Colossians 3:17

Sept. 9th - Speak out for the Lord; remember silence isn't always GOLDEN; on occasions it may be just plain YELLOW!

Sept. 10th - It is good to be saved and KNOW IT; But it's better to be saved and SHOW IT.
