PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We will strive to imitate the Holy Family: by being a loving, welcoming, and forgiving community – fully alive in the Spirit of God; by teaching our children the Gospel way of life and encouraging them always to share fully in the life of our parish; by celebrating the Liturgy as a joyful remembrance of our Lord's Sacrifice for us; by being a family of prayer; by respecting all life, and by having our arms open always to embrace the sick and needy.

The Pastor's Mind's Eye

Forgive all Injuries [Conclusion]

So we can start on the path of forgiving others by opening our hearts to God's mercy ourselves. When, by regular celebration of the sacrament of reconciliation, I have experienced the healing and liberating grace of divine mercy, then I will be freed up to let go of past hurts and be as willing to forgive as I am to receive forgiveness. And my gesture of forgiveness plays its part in the Church's mission of reconciliation: to be sure, if someone who has offended me repents and goes to confession, their sin is forgiven. Christ and his Church act through the priest to absolve the sin, but my forgiveness should be at work there, too, even if neither the priest nor the penitent is conscious of it. We know that we are called to be stewards of creation; how marvelous that we are also called to be stewards of God's greater gift of mercy.

What if the person who offended us does not ask for forgiveness? Here we can learn from the behavior of the father in the parable of the Prodigal Son. On the one hand, he allowed the son to "come to himself" in his own time; on the other, the fact that he ran out to meet his wayward son as soon as he spied him on the horizon shows that he had long since forgiven him. The young man never even got to finish his carefully rehearsed apology. The older brother refused to forgive his wayward sibling, and Jesus ends the story with a question mark: does the older brother heed his father's appeal to rejoice because his brother was dead and is now alive?

The question mark stands over us, too. Are we willing to rejoice in God's limitless mercy toward others? St. Thomas called forgiveness "the perfection of charity." This work of mercy calls us to imitate our heavenly Father, because practice makes perfect.

SPIRIT LIFTERS

- June 5th - Fellowship with God is a sacred flower which is experienced here in the bud, but whose full bloom is reserved for heaven.
- June 6th - No parent should spend all of his time in the garden of a child's life digging up weeds; there is always the danger of scratching out flowers not above the ground.
- June 7th - To some people a tree is something so incredibly beautiful that it brings tears to the eyes. To others it is just a green thing that stands in the way.
- June 8th - Children are the only people wise enough to enjoy today...without regretting yesterday or fearing tomorrow.
- June 9th - If a thought comes to you of doing a kindness to someone, do it that very minute! Don't put it off; don't wait! What's the use of doing kindness if you do it a day too late?
- June 10th - Father, we are blind to so many things, especially the inner needs of others. Improve our vision.
- June 11th - When saving for old age, be sure to lay up a few pleasant thoughts.
