We will strive to imitate the Holy Family: by being a loving, welcoming, and forgiving community – fully alive in the Spirit of God; by teaching our children the Gospel way of life and encouraging them always to share fully in the life of our parish; by celebrating the Liturgy as a joyful remembrance of our Lord's Sacrifice for us; by being a family of prayer; by respecting all life, and by having our arms open always to embrace the sick and needy.

The Pastor's Mind's Eye

Bear Wrongs Patiently - Part 2

This work is aimed at those situations that are part of life in our fallen world: misunderstood motives, slights and insults, backbiting and gossip. It is only natural that we want to strike back, and of course there may be occasions where it is appropriate or even necessary to set the record straight. The wisdom required is to know when to speak and when to keep silent. As we read through the Gospels we find that there were occasions when Jesus responded to criticism of his disciples or of himself. But there were other times when he remained silent, trusting to him who judges justly.

This work of mercy challenges us to bear wrongs patiently – a tall order. Patience is not just a matter of temperament, it is a gift of the Holy Spirit (see Gal 5:22), so it is something we must pray for and strive to put into practice. Like other virtues, it is trait that improves with practice. We can school ourselves with little acts of patience so that we are prone to be patient when the bigger upsets of life come our way. We should strive to give others the benefit of the doubt and seek to be less critical ourselves.

The Return of Communion under both species

We have now brought back the Precious Blood. That means we are in need of nine Eucharistic ministers every weekend with a list of 29 (which we lose some to the summer and winter seasons). Some only can serve at a certain Mass so that means scheduling gets to be a little hectic. Please bear with us. There are times that we need to split up a couple for a Mass, or schedule ministers closer together. In order for us to maintain the precious blood we need a minimum of six more Eucharistic Ministers. Fr. John will have a training once we get the six ministers and that training will be for all OLD AND NEW.

Knights of Columbus Escanaba Council #640

Thank you to all those that attended our recent Past Grand Knight and Old Timers Recognition Banquet. Your attendance was a good showing of our Fraternity.

This year's Family of the Year was awarded to the Harold Young family for service to their church and community. Also, Al Blahnik was selected as the Knight of the Year for his continued service to the Council.

St. Vincent de Paul Corner

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells us that "whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it."

This week, know that you will bring hope to the poor by your generous gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

If you know of anyone in need, please call either Rosemary at 786-9442 or Karen at 786-9082.

FYI

With our ability to scan and e-mail documents we no longer have a need for a fax machine. We looked into it and with taking out the fax line, will save the parish $35 a month.

WELCOME

Through the waters of baptism we welcome into our parish community Cameron Michael Jacques, son of Noah Davis and Alicia Jacques. Cameron was baptized on Saturday, June 11th. Congratulations to the families.
