The Pastor’s Mind’s Eye

Visit the Imprisoned

Part 1

“Remember those who are in prison, as if in prison with them” (Heb 13:3). When Jesus began his public ministry in his home town of Nazareth, he quoted from the prophet Isaiah that he had come to proclaim liberty to captives (Lk 4:18). Society has good reasons to keep some people incarcerated, but they too have a claim on our mercy. When we might be tempted to withhold our care from them, it would be good to recall how many saints have spent time in jail. Jesus himself experienced this condition, thereby making the prison cell sacred ground. His good news is meant for all people regardless of their circumstances.

There are practical challenges when it comes to visiting prisoners, but the Church does have a ministry to them and properly-trained volunteers are always needed. In addition, we might look for ways to help those whose spouses or parents are incarcerated. They suffer not only the pain of separation but the stigma of guilt.

St. Vincent dePaul News

The society of St. Vincent de Paul is seeking volunteers to sort miscellaneous items at the Escanaba SVdP Thrift Store. We invite 3 or 4 of your friends to join you for a fun time helping us help others. Any half days or day you can help us out would be greatly appreciated. Please call 786-2802, extension “6” and ask for the Manager. Thank you.

The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. St. Vincent often asked this simple question: “What would Jesus Christ do, if he were in my place now? Ask yourself “What would Jesus Christ do?” and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul envelope so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving. If you know of anyone in need, please call either Rosemary at 786-9442 or Karen at 786-9082.

Parish Faith & Family News: Remember parents – 3rd times a charm! Please keep your children online once a week to keep up with chapter questions. Not all are answering questions. Teachers – remember to post a question each week for grades 1-8, and every other week for high school. Reminder to our 2nd and 3rd grade parents; keep reading the sacramental prep stories to your children.

Our Confirmation students went on retreat 2 weeks ago. Our girls went to a Woman of Worth NET Retreat in Minnesota, while our boys went to a NET Retreat here in Escanaba. Here is what they said about their retreats:

This past weekend, I had the pleasure to ride down to the NET Retreat Center in Minnesota with a couple other girls for the Women of Worth all girl retreat. At WOW, we were able to unplug from the crazy world outside and dance, sing, and praise in a peaceful, positive environment. We learned what it meant to be a woman of God and how we could spread God's love to the rest of the world through talks and bible study. We also got to share our faith journeys in small groups and visit Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration. Every woman I met there was fun, loving, and beautiful, and their joy and insightfulness made the retreat ten times better. It was a wonderful experience. Janel

On the retreat last weekend we did a lot. One of the things we talked about was how much God loves us and how much Jesus does too. I've been struggling to keep faith in my life for a while now. So I thought this retreat would help me bring it back into my life. And it did so much! I'm happy I went because now I know how much Jesus loves me, and how much he wants to be in my heart. Megan

I loved the retreat for everyone was positive and I met lots of cool new people. I made a new cool best friend. It has helped me get closer. It helped me get a big step forward. It was lots of fun. I learned lot of cool stuff. Simon

I attended a Confirmation retreat. It was put on by a NET team. They gave us the opportunity to attend Sunday Mass and Reconciliation. They performed large group discussions and skits that discussed the need for Jesus in our lives. We also did small group discussions on how we as young confirmed Catholics would help out the community and how we would go forth and spread the word of God to others. Overall, I enjoyed the retreat. It was a great way to interact with other young Catholics, and to learn more about Jesus. Trent

The experience I had was amazing. The women who put on the retreat were so full of joy and grace. These past couple of months have been rough on my family and I, and this retreat helped me realize some things. One thing I learned more about is how God is always there for us even when we can't really see him. I also learned that every time something bad happens in our lives, and affects us personally, it's an opportunity for us to give our suffering to God. He loves us so much that he will take our crosses as his own. We were not meant to suffer alone. We were meant to be loved by God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. This retreat brought back my joy and enthusiasm towards God and his church. I would strongly encourage the youth of our parish to try and attend at least one NET retreat in their life. It's always an enjoyable experience with the people who put it on and with the Lord. Victoria

Confirmation students – are you working on your service hours and getting it signed by the person in charge? Please hand them in as you do them.

Deer season starts this week so there will be no CCD class this Wednesday. Hope you are all successful this year. There is no CCD for the confirmation students Sunday, November 20th.

Make plans to attend our Group Gathering on Wednesday, November 30th. It will begin at 6:15pm. There will be skits, crafts to do and snacks. We hope you will join us. Everyone in the parish is invited to come.
