THE BIBLE STUDY

The Gospel of Luke

The Laws of the Christian Life (Luke 17:1-10)

This passage falls into four definite and disconnected sections.

Luke 17:1-2 condemn the man who teaches others to sin. The Revised Standard Version talks in these verses about temptations to sin. The Greek word (skandalon, is exactly the same word as the English scandal. It has two meanings.

(a) It originally meant the bait-stick in a trap.

(b) It then came to mean any stumbling-block placed in a man's way to trip him up. Jesus said that it was impossible to construct a world with no temptations; but woe to that man who taught another to sin or who took away another's innocence.

Kennedy Williamson, the author, tells of an old man who was dying. Something was obviously worrying him. He told them at last what it was. "When I was a lad," he said, "I often played on a wide common. Near its center two roads met and crossed, and, standing at the cross-roads, was an old rickety sign-post. I remember one day twisting it round in its socket, thus altering the arms and making them point in the wrong direction; and I've been wondering ever since how many travelers I sent on the wrong road." God will not hold the man guiltless, who, on the road of life, sends a younger or a weaker brother on the wrong way.

(ii) Luke 17:3-4 speak of the necessity of forgiveness in the Christian life. It tells us to forgive seven times. The Rabbis had a saying that if one forgave another three times, one was a perfect man. The Christian standard takes the rabbinic standard, doubles it and adds one; but it is not a matter of calculation. It simply means that the Christian standard of forgiveness must immeasurably exceed the best the world can achieve.

(iii) Luke 17:5-6 tell us that faith is the greatest force in the world. We must again remember that it was the eastern custom to use language in the most vivid possible way. This saying means that even that which looks completely impossible becomes possible, if it is approached with faith. We have only to think of the number of scientific marvels; of the number of surgical operations, of the feats of endurance which today have been achieved and which less than fifty years ago would have been regarded as utterly impossible. If we approach a thing saying, "It can't be done," it will not; if we approach it saying, "It must be done," the chances are that it will. We must always remember that we approach no task alone, but that with us there is God and all his power.

(iv) Luke 17:7-10 tell us that we can never put God in our debt and can never have any claim on him. When we have done our best, we have done only our duty; and a man who has done his duty has done only what, in any event, he could be compelled to do.

LENTEN JOURNEY

We have already started another Lenten Journey which gives us the ample opportunity to examine our lives and make changes in the areas where we need to change. Lent is the period of self evaluation of our life. It invites us for a new life and a total conversion. This year also we have the Lenten devotions as usual. But it is left to each one of us how we will make use of them for our spiritual benefits. I don't encourage you to make big resolutions, which sound good, but unable to fulfill. So let us go with simple ones like participating in the devotion of the Stations of Cross and attending an extra Mass on weekdays.

Stations of the Cross every TUESDAY AT 5:30 pm and followed by that we have the soup and sandwich supper. As we have every year this year again we will be listening Dr. Edward Sri for half hour on Knowing MARY through the BIBLE. We are familiar with Sri's appealing presentations.

Meal Train Ministry

A note from Brittany and Allen Botwright:

Thank you to all who provided a meal or gave gift certificates to our family. It was a blessing to have while adjusting to becoming a family of three. Thank you!

As a parish, we provided 7 meals for The Botwrights during their first month as new parents. If you haven't been involved in this ministry before, please consider jumping on board next time! Meal Train can also be provided for those with serious illness or recovering from major surgery, too. We all have at least one or two recipes that we know others would enjoy; it doesn't need to be fancy. Please contact Heidi if you or someone you know could benefit from receiving short-term meal service.

SPIRIT LIFTERS

- Feb. 22nd - While some books inform and others reform, only the Bible transforms.
- Feb. 23rd - The world is full of beauty when your heart is filled with love.
- Feb. 24th - Christianity is bread for daily use, not cake for special occasions.
- Feb. 25th - The best and most beautiful things in this world cannot be seen or even touched, they must be felt with the heart.
- Feb. 26th - Take time to live because the world has so much to give.
- Feb. 27th - No atheist can hinder the bible's influence more than a Christian who disregards it in his life.
- Feb. 28th - Only those who see the invisible can do the impossible.

St. Vincent de Paul Corner

Lent is a call to "give alms for the poor." Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the suffering and poor. For more info contact Beverly Miller at 428-3610.

Church Janitor Position Available
at St. Anne Parish Beginning March 1, 2026 contact Fr. Fran at 786-1426 Pay is $19 per hour

The Knights of Columbus Council 640 is sponsoring the Food for Family Program "40 cans for Lent" throughout the Lenten season. Please bring canned or dried food for donations. All food collected will go to St. Vincent dePaul to stock their shelves. Thank you!
